“ I prepared Floyd's taxes for many years and he was the most honest person I've ever met. A few times he received a 1099 after he had mailed them and no matter how small of an amount he owed he would want me to do an amendment and pay his taxes. He always said "I don't want to do anything wrong. I don't want a little thing like this to keep me out of heaven." If we were all like Floyd, we would all go to heaven. He will be truly missed.

“ I am truly blessed to have known this beautiful man of God! One thing you could always see in Floyd was his true love for Jesus and making sure to share his testimony. We played music @ Buddy & Jenny Moss' for any years right up until the outbreak of COVID-19. I will always remember him for his strong faith & love for his church. I know he is in the arms of Jesus, just waiting until we all can be reunited. God Bless the remaining family, you are in my prayers. Iris & Woody Reeves

“ I looked forward to talking and seeing him everyday at the hospital while I was working there. He always made me laugh or gave me advice. He always helped me find the place I needed to go , when I was lost . He will be greatly missed. So very glad I was able to have him to visits with whenever I was working.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I met Floyd when he came to Covenant Homes and he was a nice man to be around. Always a gentleman and very soft spoken. I believe he loved his Lord and is singing with the angels now and rejoicing to be with his Master. Praying for you during this time for you to have strength and courage to carry on as Floyd would want you to.
