“ Happy Birthday to you! No need to ask how you are doing because we know that you are having a time that we can't even imagine. The Browns have a new song "Better Off There".. (what an understatement! you would not believe this world now.) It can't be long before the Lord comes to take us Home. Until then, we will go on missing you and thanking God for the time we had together. You, Roy, and Casey is always loved and always remembered. Until we meet again... FOREVER FRIENDS, Wayne & Margaret

“ It's hard to believe that a year has passed, little did I know that the first week in October 2019 would be the last days I would spend with you. I am so thankful for the time we had. Over the past 37 years we have made so many memories. We have shared so many happy times but we have gone through some really difficult times (I am so thankful that we had each other) It has been a difficult week but God has let me see something on tv or hear a song on the radio that reminded me of our friendship and remind me that you are happier now than you have ever been. There is a new song out (Better Off There) that says everything I feel and it talks about no more pain, no more care and as much as you are missed, we all know you are better off there. Your family went to the cemetery Sunday, they have it looking beautiful but it's nothing to compare with the beauty of Heaven. We all miss you but we know it won't be long until we are together again. You are loved & remembered always. Forever Friends! Margaret & Wayne

“ You didn't give me a chance to give you that "60" birthday party. I know how you love the attention(ha ha)...Your mom, dad, sister & family are at the beach . (the tradition you started. I sent you balloons on your birthday but I am not sure how far they made it. Know how much we love & Miss you. You are forever in our hearts!

“ It's been a couple of months since I last posted. Valentine's Day just passed. I know how you loved the beautiful red rose Roy always sent you. Finally this year he could do that again. Just wanted to let you know how your babies are doing. The little Diva is sleeping in my lap right now. Hope & Roger are celebrating their 45th wedding anniversary. You will not believe how much she has grown. She is over 5 lbs now. (Uncle Wayne calls her porky). She is getting to be more of a lap dog but she loves to play and loves her toys just like Casey. We went to see Andrea Valentine's Day to take her something from Patches. He is staying at home more now but we are gonna call & set up a visit. He is spoiled rotten too. I am so glad blessed them both with a wonderful home and I still get to see them. Teresa sent me a picture of a bet angel your mom and dad out at the cemetery. I still go by the house to check on things. As we all continue to miss you we try to remind ourselves how Happy you are. As bad as we would love to have you back.....knowing all the wonders of Heaven....We could not ask you back...To you and all those we love and miss, we will see you again. Loved and remembered forever...Margaret

“ Well it's Christmas Day....I am most definitely not ready to celebrate. This year is one of the hardest ever I miss you everyday and I'm too. That little fellow sure did bring a lot of happiness into our lives. You wouldn't believe how much your babies have grown. I missed Patches the past 2 times I went by. He weighs 6 lbs now. He still don't like bruise puppy pads, and he is still all puppy...but he is loved..I kept Pepper (Abigail ---Abby) over the Thanksgiving holidays. That little girl is a mess..She also likes to eat. She weighs 4 lbs now. I don't know who loves her the most.....Roger don't like to be away from her long at the time. I get to see both of them, and I can tell you they are both loved. (They are very special..but there will never be another kk...Oh how I miss you both. Enjoy you first Christmas in Heaven...and know that you took a piece of our hearts with you..MERRY CHRISTMAS! Love you!

“ Jeannie, missing you with each passing day. I'm trying really hard to get in the Christmas spirit but it is hard. I know how much you loved Christmas with all the lights & decorations. We shared many Christmas 's together, I 'm thankful for all the memories. I read the post from Amber.(She had been trying to get in touch with you) Amber you won't remember me but your mom probably will. Wayne & I had a special friendship with Roy & Jeannie. I can tell you that you were very special to them. You said in your post that you would like to talk with someone and share the memories of these two very special people. I don't get on Facebook but you can text me @ msuits@embarqmail.com. I will be happy to share with you memories of 2 very special people.

“ I'm writing this as Jeannies niece. I have very fond memories of Roy and Jeannie visiting us in Florida. She was an amazing aunt but unfortunately we did not keep in touch after Roy passed. I was only a child when Roy passed so when I got older I would regularly search for Jeannie online to reconnect. I am reading this finding out that she has too passed and would love to reconnect with someone to talk about her and memories. I'm so sad she's gone as is my mom (her sister in law). Sending lots of love to her family and friends.

“ It's that time again. Remembering our tradition of getting up about 2am and going shopping at Wal-Mart. Our favorite part was to get breakfast after shopping and then go home & take a nap. I was walking in Wal-Mart yesterday and all of those memories came flooding back. Those were the days. Not a day goes by that you are not remembered. I will always be thankful for our friendship. It was truly one of God's most precious gifts. Not a day goes by that you are not remembered. Know that you are truly loved and greatly missed. Love you..always !

“ Today is one month since you left us. Wayne & I were talking earlierit seems like just yesterday. I try to stay busy so I don't have to deal with reality. We are getting the things done that have to be taken care of. That keeps us busy for now so, I try not to think on the reality but I know the day will soon come that I've got to face it. I'm not sure how to deal with it but I know that God will give me what I need when I need it. I look back over the years and things that He brought us through..Thanksgiving is just around the corner..and then your favorite time big the year.CHRISTMAS! We always went to the festival at the armory. I found the last things I bought..the last time we went. It was 2 snowmen and it had FOREVER FRIENDS on it...Another memory is when we use to put chairs in back of the truck and go looking at Christmas decorations,, we always talked about who we may lose in the upcoming year. Oh the wonderful memories we have to remember. Just Know how much you , Roy, and Casey are missed! Love you. Wayne and Margaret

“ Just wanted to let you know that your babies are doing great. I went to see Patches Fri. He was at work with his mommy. Actually I think he is trying to run the office. He is growing like a weed. He now weighs 5lbs! He gets a bath every Sunday and he gets brushed out every night (he does not like that...He wines). He is loved so much...He is doing great..when I went by the office he was so excited to see me. I told Andrea that you brought them to see us before they went to their new home. I got lots & lots of kisses. Little Is Priss is going great. She decided to decorate or should I say toilet paper the house while everyone was sleeping. Roger woke up and he said he thought he was dreaming because it looked like the room was covered in snow. Both of them love paper, they so funny. I'm suppose to keep her for a few days later in the month, gonna try to get patches for a couple of hours so they can play. We are all going through the motions to get by not day at a time. Still can't believe that you are really gone. Love & Miss you, trying to make decisions based on the way we think you would approve. The light of God 's love is still making an impact on people's life. We will always keep your memory alive and share the love of JESUS like you did every day. Love you!

“ Well her I sit trying to process the past 3 weeks. I look at the door waiting to see you come up with the babies. It is had to imagine life without you but I know that is reality. I think you will be happy with who took the babies. Andrea has Patches...He is all puppy..She has given him a great home where there is lots of love (he is spoiled) She has a special bond with him because of the friendship y'all shared. Pepper is with Roger & Hope...She is about 3 lbs now...She loves steak and all that good table food. Her name now is Abigail (Abby) Pepper Murray. I have visitation rights with both of them, although they have different families, both families agreed to letting them spend time together. I know that you are still making your rounds to see everyone. Tell my family & friends we will be together again...just anyday...Looking forward to seeing you all again! For now we will carry on & keep you always in our hearts. Love & Miss You! Forever Friends! Margaret.

“ Jeannie should have written the song "I did it my way". She would listen to your advice on any given situation and then, did exactly what & how she thought it should be done. She was tough....She could hang with all the best....whatever the situation, she could find a way to fix it. She was definitely "one of a kind". A friend for life...always loved, never forgotten. Love & Miss you! Wayne

Margaret Suits - October 16, 2019 at 01:04 PM

“ Be not forgetful to entertain strangers; for thereby some have entertained angels unaware. We can find many scriptures in the Bible that refer to angels. Hebrews 13:2. 1Peter 4:9. 3 John 1:5. Also we find "no greater love has a person that would give their life for a friend". To all of her co-workers at KINEXO know that you shared the past few years with an angel. Jeannie loved you and if ever she thought you had a need of any kind, she would do all she could to meet your needs no matter the cost. She wanted to give 110% at the expense of her health. She was a true gift from God, an angel to walk with us as a friend. I don 't know if you have realize the gift she was. She always stood on the side of TRUTH...She will be remembered for her faith, her love for people, and standing up for what was right in the eyes of God, not man. As we grieve our loss with broken hearts, Jeannie is having the time of her life. Reunited with Roy, her baby boy Casey(yorkie) and all her friends and loved one's who have already passed on. The One she longed for the most was our Lord & Savior.....

Margaret Suits - October 16, 2019 at 11:52 AM

“ I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race. I have kept the faith. Finally there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness .2Tim. 4:7&8. There are no words to express the void left in my heart ...A woman of strong faith.....a TRUE FRIEND.....a SISTER...a shining example of the love of GOD...everyone was special to her and she ALWAYS put others before herself..Over the past 35 years..we have traveled down many roads. We were blessed to share so many good memories but, life throws us a curve sometimes and turns our world upside down. 2004 changed her life forever....her soulmate...the love of her life "ROY" went to be with the Lord ...Over the years we have shared in many losses but we had each other (Teresa, we have to continue on) .Ma Betty & Mr Ronnie and the rest of the family....One Day At A Time! God is still faithful! Even tho we don't understand..He has it all in control. (To Roger, Michael, Kim.. "Thank You") Jeannie never forgot your kindness & support....Jeannie, I know that you are still making your rounds in heaven and I know that you don't want to come back..just remember how much we love you and know that a piece of our hearts are with you. Always in our hearts! We love & Miss you.
