“ I was sadden to hear this news. Heaven gained a precious angel! Daddy Bud will be missed here but he left some precious memories and was a blessing to know him. He loved his family and he knew His Savior loves him and will look over his family and friends until they are called to their eternal home! Love and Hugs to all!! Susan Peoples

“ I'm finding it so hard to accept that you're gone. I'm going to miss you more than words could ever express. I am blessed that of all people in this world, I was chosen to be your son. Not a day will go by that I don't think of you and all that you have done for me. You were and always will be the greatest father anyone could ever ask for. I would give anything to hear your voice again. I smile knowing that you are in a place where you can walk, breathe, and rest without pain, and I know you're smiling down on us. Heaven gained a treasure and I know God is so much happier having you with him - I just wish you had a little more time here with us. I know my brothers were there to greet you with open arms. I take comfort in knowing that you are in a better place and that one day I will get to see you again. I love you so much and always will.
